So I wonder what we are to make of this and what the hell can be so damaging to Paul McGovern? This URL is registered to somebody. Larry and Victor do we want to mention this on the air?

NO! Don't mention it on the air; let's see what happens on Sunday. If nothing pans out for Sunday -- which is what I'm predicting -- then you drew MORE attention to something that should never have been more than a blip on the radar

Thanx for your comments. I'm getting five (5) e-mails per MINUTE right now over this! I've had several people now tell me that Shawna, WJ and ATS are behind this, not Steve who just admitted to me he's been on an 8-day drinking binge, has $4 to his name and simply doesn't have the faculties to stage something like this!

I'll let Rick work his "magic" and see WHO he comes up with as the culprits!

Subject: Question for the Team of Five from Dr Green: WHO did this evilthing?!

Dr GREEN:

1) The things you state in your e-mail are NOT what they seem. Let me explain with NEW information.

2) It's true that Bill and myself were NOT on the original "outing," but what you DON'T KNOW is that key individuals on the pro-SERPO LuciAnarchy forum were ALSO omitted from the initial PR release. They were omitted because they:

- a) would have alerted Bill and me to what had come down, so we could have acted;
- b) they would have posted something on their forum trashing the release in its infancy before it got any legs.

3) NO: Bill and I have NEVER "outed" you, Doc P and Rick, but think back to that "goof" e-mail to where WJ -- The IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS -- somehow got wind of the "Team of Five -- and could very easily have shared that with Shawna XXXXXXXXXXXX who IS a scorned, hurt woman right NOW.

Also, don't forget that "threatening tone" she used in that weird e-mail written to me on Easter Sunday -- DELETING Bill as a recipient -- but strangely including ONLY the three of you and a few other key individuals with a "special announcement" that would kill SERPO's value ... remember it, Doc? That specific information was fed to her by WJ which she subsequently disclosed to Steve xxxxxxxx in a near hysterical state to Steve XXXXXXXXXXXX on Tuesday night, April 18, 2006. I recounted her conversation to Bill in great detail.

4) RICK: Steve and I traced that phone no. listed by Network Solutions to Newhall/Santa Clarita which is the Magic Mountain area of the Sa Fernando Valley.

The address listed on Sepulveda Blvd in Westchester is nothing more than a mail drop like a "Mail Boxes, Etc." so that apt/suite no. is nothing more than the box no. at that address.

That's all I can do with my very limited computer capabilities and my GUT impression right now is that Steve xxxxxxxx is NOT behind this, but I'll let you -- Rick Doty -- follow the evidence and we'll defer to YOUR judgment on this matter.

I'm fine with that.

Doc G:

Well, this comes as a surprise to me and I'm SURE it will to Bill, too!
I had no idea you had such dealings with Val Hall and her husband Mark Springer ... well, you did, so OK.

Know this: They made Bill's life HELL while he was on ATS AND they put up that "The lies of Bill Ryan" AND their attorney "hijacked" SERPO for a while AND WJ used Shawna to continue to extract information from the project, spat her out and threw her into a fit of depression.

TRUE: He might not have anything against YOU, but he has it "in" for SERPO -- for whatever reason(s) -- and if you go "down" as a result of your connection to it, too bad in his view.

Why couldn't he find even ONE (1) hour to meet with you for lunch when you were in DC the last time? More than likely because he was wary of being grilled by you about his playing IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS by you.

You were there in DC for four (4) days = 96 hours. One (1) hour for lunch = .0104% of 96 hours. Pretty hard case to make that "I don't have the time to meet with you for lunch, Dr Green!"

Hi, Kit:

Not JERRY Springer!!! "Springer" is Mark xxxxxxxxxxx username on ATS. Mark xxxxxxxxxxx (Valhall's/xxxxxxxxxs husband) is one of the "Three Amigos" who control ATS, the others being "Skeptic Overlord" (Bill xxxxxxxxxxx) and Simon xxxxxxxxxxx.

Mark xxxxxxxxxxx has in the past been arraigned for fraud, by the way. It's on the record.

WJ of course knows the team of five. He forwarded one of your messages to Valhall / XXXXXXXXXXX xxxxxxxx in early February. I outed him immediately and told you he had done that. His response, rather than being apologetic, was vitriolic – an immediate red flag.

At the time, in response to this, on Sunday 5 February you wrote (Subject: RE: Are Bill and I dealing with the same ANONYMOUS,... hell if I know!):

This is the most stupid and unethical situation with which I have ever been associated. I can not believe this. I do not know Val, I was told by WJ I could trust him. I did not see this, was not asked about it, did not give my permission. My emails were all marked PRIVATE.

"Goofed Badly" is the most trivial of definitions. WJ has no clue what he did. None. He may be an attorney, but he clearly doesn't practice any simple level of confidentiality...inferred or otherwise.

After that, for reasons I have never understood, the only person who seemed to continue to trust him was yourself.

In answer to your question, if WJ and "Valhall" know of the team of five and have done since early February, then so do Shawna xxxxxxxx and all the other ATS insiders. It's completely clear.

Best, Bill

He has written me in the past, and we have exchanged two or three very pleasant emails, and nothing about SERPO. Recently. Why a grudge? WJ has no grudge against me, because he has no reason. I know at one point Victor apparently copied Collins a note with our five names...but why do you say so surely that "all three" know "the involvement"?

How? What do they "know? Who told them what? Why would Shawna who we have never met nor communicated with have a grudge? And why would the wife of a guy with whom I have had exceptionally pleasant discussions with have a grudge? Springer wanted me for an interview, and I politely declined...the subject wasn't one I knew anything about, and he thanked me...we exchanges some professional credentials, and "parted" best email friends.

Hi, Kit:

Victor and I also noted that we did not receive this (and neither did the moderators on the Lucianarchy "Open Minds" Forum).

Rick's working on IDing the author. At first Victor, Rick and I (conf call this pm) thought it was Steve xxxxxxxx, who lives in LA, has met with and corresponded with Victor, has a grudge and told Kerry and myself (see next e-mail) on Saturday that he planned to "force the issue" and, referencing Flight 93, intended to "take the cockpit". We advised him that this would be pretty stupid in the extreme and ended the meeting early. He had been drinking, at 11.30 am. I advised Victor in strong terms that he was an extremely loose cannon and could not be trusted.

In a phone message to me this pm, Steve XXXXXXXXXX denied having anything to do with it, and sounded credible.

I did not give out your names.

Remember: WJ, Shawna xxxxxxxx and "Valhall" (real name xxxxxxxxxx, "Springer"s wife) also know your involvement in the team of five. All three will be harboring grudges.

I just got this. It is evil. I note that Hal, myself, and Rick got it. You two did not.

I don't know who besides the two of you know that Hal, myself, and Rick are working an issue together on Serpo (with the two of you...who are mysteriously missing from the addressee line.) No one else...ever in the entire period has ever sent a note like this linking specifically the three of us, and just the three of us. Not even Sarfatti knows, or Dan, or Collins, or WJ. Until now, maybe.

Do either of you know who the sick puppy is? Or, what he thinks he knows? Or whether he is going to do what he promises?

He (or she) is obviously delusional...as well as stupid and likely intoxicated...it has that form...because I can tell from the header information I could figure out who he is, by name, address, phone number, and more in 10 minutes if I were to ask my Internet Security Officer to find out...and I bet Rick has already so done!

But I give you two a chance: who is he/she, and did either of you give out our names?

> problem with": Steve, Kelly, WJ, Shawanna, Zep Tepi, Val, Scott and > several others...need I say more?

Kit, this is an inaccurate and meaningless generalisation. To help us all, let's take it person by person:

Steve xxxxxxx: Victor – who can speak for himself – seemed to trust him. I never have. He is an impetuous wildcard and apparently a semi-alcoholic. However, as best as I know, he has never lied. He's as he describes himself: a straightforward cowboy.

Kelly: I did trust her and had absolutely no reason not to. She outed Rick when Victor inveigled his way into her confidence on WJ's instructions and asked her who had been sending me the information. She has never apologised and has always refused to talk about it... it was one of the reasons behind our break-up, as I cannot be in partnership with someone who breaks their word to me about such a serious matter.

WJ: You and I both corresponded with him before the 5 February event where he brought Valhall into the loop, who I knew beforehand could not be trusted. That was the betrayal. He is categorically the fake Anonymous and if this is not clear there is information which you have missed or not assimilated.

Shawna (xxxxxxxxxx): I have never said she could be trusted. (And she cannot.)

Zep Tepi (Steve xxxxxxxx): He can be trusted and I have always stated this.

Valhall (xxxxxxxxxx): No comment needed. She cannot be trusted under any circumstances and this has always been known to me.

Scott: I don't know him. I believe Victor when he says he can be trusted. (If we can't believe one another, there's no hope. Sometimes we may get things wrong, but this will be part of the learning process and through no ill-intention.)

ATS (Bill xxxxxxxx, Mark xxxxxxxxx): You gotta be kidding.

Kerry: Come and meet her if you like... Rick will be meeting her soon. She's absolutely trustworthy and possesses a degree of integrity that in my experience is exceptionally rare. She knows what I do and has the same values, attitudes and purposes. We're here for exactly the same reasons.

It's becoming clear to me that we should all meet together sometime quite soon (although I acknowledge that Victor may prefer not to involve himself). Frustrations have been high, there have been misunderstandings, we each may still have unanswered questions to ask one another, and the team is in danger of fragmenting. We should work proactively to fix this: my personal position, which I'm sure we can all empathise with, is that the more we all know and understand the more supportive and synergistically aligned we can all be.

Best, to all Bill

I haven't been monitoring the forums lately - too much real work to do. So what did WJ do to Shawna? Threaten her with a law suit as well? How did she displease the ATS masters?

The writing style of that message on the serpro.info site does sound familiar to me. And, I can see where there is a connection possibly to WHIII and indirectly to the Burisch clan. But, the hiding of the ownership of the domain name for the site is very ATS-like behavior. So my bets are on them as the source. The only other people that do domain name hiding are spammers, hackers, porn site owners, and those committing crimes via the Internet. We shall see.

Subject: re: mystery serpo site
Hi Victor,

Zeptepi has spoken to Bill and also did a little digging. Dialogue below. . . .

Hi guys,
According to Bill, the user "tacitusmonroe" alerted him to the www.serpo.info website. This particular persons email is tacitusmonroe@serpo.info (also in Bill's email) so it's a safe bet to assume he also created the site.

I checked the IP info that Bren kindly provided me with and came up with the following info:

172.200.46.110

Strangely, the IP location info is given as: United States [City: London, England]. The reverse DNS info is: ACC82E6E.ipt.xxxxxxxxxx

Obviously, the above would suggest it is an AOL user but the location is very confusing and I've not seen that in a search before.

I have an idea what the revelations may be based on past research, but this site has come as a bit of a surprise - to say the least!

Bill did tell me who he thought was responsible, because they had an ip match, but to be honest what he said didn't make any sense. The site is hosted in Dallas, who do we know who lives in Dallas?

Curiouser and curiouser!

Regards,
Zep

I wrote back to Zep the following:

Who did Bill say he thought it was?

Victor called me twice last night, we talked for over 90 minutes.

With regards to serpo.info . . .at first we both believed it was created by Steben. We then both talked to Steben separately. And then we had second thoughts. However, Steben could have got someone to do it for him. Also it is believed that Shawna may have something to do with it too as she has said she has the nail that will seal the coffin of Serpo and is just waiting for the right time to play it. However we both doubt that she would stupe to this level.

Victor has received comments from over 6 people who have accused Steben of it. And Rick Doty wrote Steben a very nasty email over it. I tend to think that it is the work of a number of people.

Zep, I would like to pass on that info of yours above to Victor. Is there any objections to this?

No objections at all Rick. Bill also named Steben, he said his email address matched the IP address of the website. Like I said earlier; the site is hosted in Dallas, but isn't Steben in LA? Hence my confusion lol.

Is Steben capable of doing something like this? I would be surprised if Shawna is involved. Again, she would have to have had someone doing it for her. To be perfectly honest though, this isn't her style. She comes straight out with what she's thinking and wouldn't mess about like this.

Cheers,
Zep

Victor: If you are wondering about who is "tacitusmonroe", he posted only four times. Here is his opening post.

Hello. My name is Tacitus Monroe. By way of introduction I make the following statement.

Serpo is a work of fiction with its base in existing UFO folklore.

My rationale for the above statement is based upon the following statements. Aspects of the story have been culled from existing stories. The quality of new information ranges from poor to worthless. The method of release is dubious. People involved in the release are of suspect background.

Too many people want to believe in the existence of extraterrestrial life regardless of known facts. Many people exploit this unfortunate fact for monetary reward.

Serpo will never attain the coverage true disclosure would achieve quite simply because the holes in this story can be seen from Zeta Reticuli using a cheap telescope.

Ab imo pectore
Tacitus Monroe

No sweat. It may be that I just didn't get the definitive story, and don't have a need for it yet. I am very patient about this stuff: the one immutable truth I have learned is that things change with new incoming exculpatory data every data.

1. WJ isn't who he originally said he was, and isn't the nice guy several though he was.
2. For similar, although different in timing, reasons...you are no longer talking and sharing with him, nor is Bill, nor am I.
3. At a minimum, he plays silly games, at a maximum spends time doing venal things.

There are a lot of less than ethical humans in this story, and they fool us often for awhile.

Well, all I can say is that Rick, Bill and myself ALL believe 100% that WJ xxxxxxxxxxxx was the IMPOSTER ANONMOUS at:

where he still continues to p/u hs mail to this day. If you're not convinced, then Bill dropped the ball in presenting the evidence because it was VERY convincing and OVERwhelming for Rick and me.

The truth. The Nashville UFO photos are real but the incident is a fake. No such incident occurred in Nashville. The photographs were taken from a real archive but Darrell Edmondson, a former member of the Crystal Knight Team. He sold the photographs in 1980 for $15,000. Where they went from there, no one knows. But it looks like somehow they made it into the Nashville hoax.

He means what he says...who knows why. I suspect Rick can't convince him. He sounds like a person with Messianic Personality Disorder, and he will love the attention. He will even publish Rick's email traffic about the game.

It may not be too important...after all Victor, you have announced to all on your list that he has no data whatsoever, and that you are sure he has none. So, he must just be blowing smoke. Old stuff he will likely assemble in a package and try to make appear that it is new.

Heck, he sure couldn't know about the "Team of 5" now, could he? (Unless, of course, he has emails from Bill to WJ, You to WJ, you to Anonymous at Yahoo, or your recorded calls and private emails to WJ...or other same-such).

I guess we will find out on the 31st! I can hardly wait to see, in any event why he quoted your emails specifically...it is also very possible he actually thinks the SERPO is really true, and thinks he has a "duty" to "Out" us, because he actually thinks we know more than we do.

Yes, it was illegal, a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 797 and many other Federal laws. Unfortunately, the photographs were never known to be missing until they showed up in a magazine in 1987 and then in the Nashville hoax. I guess no one wanted to pursue it since trying to prosecute the guy would advertise the importance of the photographs.

Ah! I called it correctly! "The importance of the photographs?!" Heck, it would have VALIDATED THE PHOTOS and all of the peripheral issues connected to them! ALL of the USG debunking stories would have been DEbunked themselves!

This is why Jesse Marcel, Sr, and others who spoke out on Roswell were never prosecuted for revealing state secrets: to have prosecuted them would only have VALIDATED their claims.

RICK:

1) Wow! First thing I noticed is that Kit and Hal were cc'd, but Bill and myself were NOT just as in the original stream. This leads me to believe that WJ is ULTIMATELY behind this as only he knows of our small group and is directing this guy to omit us from any e-mails.

2) What REALLY CONCERNS me is that IF this is WJ orchestrating this, then this guy REALLY does have some GREAT information to reveal on Sunday.

I called Bill to discuss it and from a PR standpoint and probably the best thing would be to say is ... NOTHING IF THE INFORMATION HE DISCLOSES IS TRUE.

I'd feel REALLY bad if Gannon was named -- and he wasn't ANONYMOUS! -- but to DENY his truthful claims and then later on for those claims to be proven TRUE would ruin either my credibility or Bill's if we came out and stated on the record that Monroe's claims were false when in fact they weren't. Also, Mr Hero's existence REALLY concerns me.

IF they are false, then either Bill or myself can make a public statement as such, but NOT state what the facts really are.

3) RICK: NOT knowing really anything about computers, what if:

a) you sent him a "bug" late Saturday night completely disabling his computer come Sunday when he gets ready to send out his stream, and;

b) hack into and crash his Web site also for Sunday.

NO, it won't stop the eventual disclosure, BUT it will have a strong psychological impact on him/them AND make him appear as a flake in front of all those people he promised a "big announcement" to. Lots of sizzle, no steak or as Walter Mondale had put it, "Where's the beef?!"

I agree with Victor.

It is very likely the evidence is what we have all as a Team of Five been stewing over for some time...not a thing that is new.

1. The person (WJ or minions, who know how to "ROOTKIT" our computers and read our emails know us), and if not, mistakes in sending WJ and others (Collins, Scott, Dr. Ghost, several girlfriends at one time or another) "memos" that we have been "Certain" were to "Real" and "Safe" people that we now know were not...or passed them on, there is plenty of odds and ends of data to be assembled and make it seem we are a Band of Brothers doing the hoax...so we need to be prepared to be "OUTED"...and it is our fault at being very careless. The fact we are not the hoaxers may tough to prove...like trying to prove a negative is always tough.

2. And, we have heard from day one that Paul McGovern (and Herb, too) are dead, and that someone has death certificates for them. The dead Paul and Herb, while having common names...do seem to "fit" the locations (i.e. Northern Virginia, and Western Maryland) they were said to live, at one time. Tough to prove a negative here, too.

3. 90% of all emails from the early stage releases of Anonymous I, Herb, Paul (but curiously not Gene), did resolve to Rick's computer(s) including at one point his wife's and one at his State Police workplace, and were all "public" in that it is not a crime to look for root IP addresses. Of course, it is near impossible without a lot of time and money and official capability to show the IP's of Rick were cloned, and from the beginning Anonymous I and Anonymous III (Anonymous II was clearly Rick, as he has said) used him, so defense of saying "I was cloned" is weak to the extreme. No sense in putting out a weak, although true, excuse before we know it is necessary...and besides...only Rick knows the truth of this. Saying he was "cloned" would be a decision Rick and only Rick should make.

4. It is also known that one of the team mailed fake materials to himself, and another used a fake screen name (actually several) to engage anonymously in chat rooms, and another sent packages to the wrong people, and emails to the wrong people...so the "Oh what tangled webs we weave when 'ere we attempt to deceive" seems to apply here. So we have been complicit...not in a hoax, but in what will surely look like a hoax: these silly attempts (some of us loudly screamed from day one to NOT play these games) are just that...silly and sophomoric, if not sophmor-onic, but certainly not venal or even unethical. They were always meant to protect someone, or gain public information to check out what WE thought might be a nasty hoax.

5. Finally...if Tacitus is WJ...or is working with WJ...we KNOW he and three of his friends HOLD THE FIRST PATENTS on email chat-room software, licensed them to YAHOO, have perfect capability to read our emails (remember, WJ disclosed this and even sent me (us) the software to do that VERY early on...a warning perhaps?) and belong to the set of attorneys who know EXACTLY what is legal and what is not...are specialists in Internet Intellectual Property Law at one of the finest and most respected Virginia, Maryland, D.C. Law firms...with 400 lawyers...and believe they have the right to stop hoaxes. From Day One they have said this smells like a hoax...and they may even believe the little tid-bits I have mentioned above constitute circumstantial evidence that Rick, and Victor, and Bill...and likely others (!) are behind the "Hoax."

6. And, to the extent this is a true story (SERPO) that is, and that at LEAST 50% is true...mixed with 50% untrue (to allow plausible deniability, as is done officially all the time) and that there is a "battle" going on with some of the insiders now being in power to stop the SERPO release officially...saying "We told you so...those clowns can't manage the release with their boy-spy games..." ...then THEY may be now in POWER and are using sophisticated means to discredit the FIRST Anonymous' release.

Summary: I still think Tacitus is WJ, that he has actual "evidence" (although in some cases wrong, and some cases highly incomplete) that much of the original "real data" came from Rick's computers, that he has been aided in release of the data, that the folks helping him (us) could reasonably though to have been in on the "hoax" and therein has created an artificial reality (as in the ARG hypothesis) that can no longer be distinguished from the truth...which is that Rick was used from the beginning officially, there was an official release at the beginning, there was no hoax (only some silly minor mistakes like mailing fake stuff to ourselves and the wrong folks) and we are just as much confused about who/what/why as anyone.

Anyway...all the above is true, and whoever is reading this...I am happy for it. It is all old news, and it is all the absolute truth, and none of the five of us are wittingly involved in any hoax that I know of.

For the nth time, and for the nth time on record...my summary remains the same: SERPO is not true...it is a hoax because it looks like a hoax, smells like a hoax, feels like a hoax. But it doesn't WALK like a hoax; it "walks" like someone is in or has access to official capability, or knows very advanced IT technology to legally appear they do...and may be engaged in something we simply do not understand. An Alternative Reality Game....purposely inserting memes and engrams in the collective consciousness by using a viral marketing model...fits 100% of the data I have seen. It may even be legal..and it may only be us who ends up thinking that the hurt it causes people is unethical. Tacitus - WJs of the world would simply quote: "Caveat Emptor."

I called Bill right after I spoke with you this morning and we both agreed that YOU should take the lead on this after consulting w/ your people. Now, if you want to write some kind of release, have me REword it and then stream it with MY name on it, that's OK.

Taking the "lead" does NOT mean that you should do a "Reply All!" Personally, I think we should wait until May 4 when they come up with their "proof" of McGovern's non-existence which could ONLY be a certified death certificate; anything short of that is mere speculation.

Wow! Great! Looks like I'm going to be writing to Tacitus Monroe and asking him: "Where's the beef?!" as Walter Mondale did of Gary Hart in the presidential primary (referencing Hart's claims of "new ideas.")

Let's see that death certificate!

DOC G: I think an apology on your part is in order, don't you think for doubting that Bill met Paul? Be a man, take the high road and do it ... NOW! ñ

Don't be ridiculous. I owe no apology for saying that the person Bill met with who he (BILL) insists was PAUL was the Paul I have two pictures of (a different man) from a primary source, who also said that wasn't the man he saw Bill meeting with, and when the man Bill met with never showed ID, or even said he was Paul.

I doubt that Bill met the real Paul:

1. Wrong guy in picture...different guy and too young. I have pictures of a different Paul from three sources that ARE all the same, and all different than the guy in the picture...could my three sources be lying to me? Sure. Over 20 years, not likely. Pre-Serpo? Less likely. Possible, sure. Worthy of doubt...you better believe it.
2. Paul's friend says it wasn't the real Paul.
3. Bill admits he didn't actually admit or identify himself as Paul.
4. Bill admits the identification came from a third party.
5. The third party says Bill misunderstood...Rick ID'd a "Paul" sitting/standing near Bill, but not the one Bill was talking to at that moment who Bill later said he was CERTAIN was Paul.

Apologize for doubting?

I take note that I am not certain. I take further note that is what I have said. I take note Bill has made categorical statements that are contradicted by the above at least despositive circumstantial evidence. Could Bill be right, and he met with a real Paul, somewhere, sometime? Absolutely. But not absolutely clear from enigmatic and categorical statements of fact.

Wow! Great! Looks like I'm going to be writing to Tacitus Monroe and asking him: "Where's the beef?!" as Walter Mondale did of Gary Hart in the presidential primary (referencing Hart's claims of "new ideas.")

Let's see that death certificate!

Subject: RE: Tacitus Monroe

I do not know a THING about Tacitus for 100% concerning his identity, or exactly what he has. I shouldn't write declarative statements, but I am too busy to put in qualifiers.

Here is my deal: 100% of what I say about Tacitus I have reason to believe, but I am far from certain.

I will say I am certain when I am...and promise to use the word "certain" to convey to the Team of Five that I have veridical evidence. I will NOT use the word "certain" for just my opinion...but I may say I am "sure." But I won't say sure and certain without veridical data at my hand.

I will not share the data. I expect strongly you know why.

Here is what I am CERTAIN about:

1. He is great writer: clear, unambiguous, uses spell-check and grammar-check, and writes LIKE a very few persons with whom we have corresponded. He does NOT use any OUR stylistic cutsey-tootsie affectations in writing. He writes better than Rick, Kit, Hal, and (usually) Victor. But Victor and Bill could be Tacitus, but I don't think so. My IT people also think he is MUCH more proficient in IT than any of us in the past...including Rick. That originally led me to think it was WJ or one of WJ's World. FWIW...Tacitus abjectly denies he is WJ, or connected to WJ, or connected to anyone who is connected to WJ.
2. Nothing he has said is not openly available on the SERPO for a or web sites...yet. He is sure and certain Bill did not meet Paul, or at least the real Paul. He seems to know everything...and I mean everything...that Bill has ever claimed about Paul, INCLUDING his original and later many changes in his story and the details of the meeting. He attributes the waffling to Rick as the PupetMaster.
3. He professes to be insulted at the hoax.

Victor:

There are several things wrong with this story. First of all, the second crash site was about 65 miles southwest of Socorro. The cameraman's recollection of events are just not right. There were decayed bodies at the second crash site, which wasn't found until 1949. Those bodies wouldn't be in any condition to autopsy, as displayed in the Santilli film. The recovery team did conduct autopies on the aliens but from the Roswell crash site, not the Socorro crash site.

I never knew any surveillance operations conducted against Wendell Stevens. Maybe there was and I just never had access to that operation.

The Santilli film is extremely questionable. I saw a similar film, although I cannot say it was the Santilli exact film, back in 1982. But that film came from South America and was a fake.

I've heard many stories since 1997 regarding the Santilli film. But I haven't seen or heard anything from "insiders" who would verify the film as authentic.

I don't believe him. I have turned three matters over to the FBI regarding the illegal use of the AOL servers. I'll let them take the case and run with it.

Everyone involved, will be identified. I'm tired of playing games with these idiots. I think there is a legitimate security problem associated with someone who uses AOL security codes to send out phone information. How, knows, Tacitus Monroe could be a terrorist or a child molester. I'll let the buruear find the truth.

Good points, and I agree with you totally that to this extent...if your hypothesis is true (and I also agree it is perfectly reasonable and has some data already to support it) then he is a guilty, and that if your "beyond a reasonable doubt" is correct...you are also right about that.

And aren't you guilty here too, of stating something as a "concrete fact," only to back pedal (possibly) on this proclamaiton of fact? As far as I'm concerned, if it turns out that WJ set this whole thing up behind the scenes, then he's just as guilty as Tacitus Monroe and as he actually did it himself.

Also, let's not forget that he denied being IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS and he is, in my view, beyond a reasonable doubt IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS.

I want to repeat myself also...I am guilty of inappropriately using declarative language when I do not have declarative facts...and that is sloppy. I should say ALL quick emails are to the TEAM OF FIVE to be considered HYPOTHETICAL when I say I believe something like "Tacitus is not WJ..." or such-like UNLESS I specifically say I AM CERTAIN.

I am certainly NOT certain!

Well, I haven't seen more than 8-10 pages from Tacitus...but none of us (including you, Victor) have ever gone that far with-out a spelling or grammar error. Your last email included, for example, this construction and misspellings:

"And aren't you guilty here too, of stating something as a "concrete fact," only to back pedal (possibly) on this proclamaiton of fact? As far as I'm concerned, if it turns out that WJ set this whole thing up behind the scenes, then he's just as guilty as Tacitus Monroe and as he actually did it himself."

I can say with CERTAINTY that I am NOT speaking of un-original copy jobs...but I agree his web site is a little weird, and it DOES contain a grammatical error. But not the prose I have.

I wonder...Tacitus could be ValHall? Tacitus has never said he/she is NOT an ATS person...only that he/she is not a "WJ" person.

Your suggestion that Tacitus was at Laughlin is very prescient. I bet you are right. Bill...anyone fit the description that you remember...affecting perhaps an erudite pseudo-hostile demeanor?

Sorry, but I can't share samples of his writing with anyone.

1) Victor Martinez + Tacitus Monroe = I PLEAD GUILTY, YOUR HONOR! I'm him!

Now, THAT IS hilarious!

2) Rick knows Russian well.

3) Bill knows Latin and Greek well.

4) Tacitus writes better than ME?! Please share those samples of his writings with me/us ... I'd love to see them! The sentences on his Web site are taken from at least three (3) people's writings: me, Bill Hamilton and ValHall at ATS.

That's a copy job, NOT original work. Many people have copied MY style (e.g., C2CAM), not the reverse.

5) I'm probably wrong, but it almost seems, based on your attached comments, that this guy was at the Laughlin Conf "stalking" Bill and the people whom he met in order for him to know so much.

Read what I said, Victor, I said I had writings. I didn't say emails.

Besides, I have lost a great deal of trust in the ability of the team to either keep secrets, do what we say, and more.

Finally...were you to write me a personal letter, politely ask I not share it, would you expect me to send it four people?

And, I can't begin to even COUNT the things you kept from us: phone calls with WJ, sending private emails to Collins and Scott, back-channel musings galore with ATS folks....something about a Pot CXXXXXXXXXXg the Kettle Black here? It is one thing to pass on my private emails...and Rick's, and Bills, and Hals...it is quite another to hold in confidence what a person requests a priori.

There is also a need to know issue.

DOC G:

What?! Why not?! Why can't you share samples of Tacitus Monroe's e-mails with the rest of us? Aren't five heads better than one? Were you to do so, it would enable all of us to detect key phrases, [misspelled] words that might make any one of the four of us to think of OTHERS who have committed the same errors.

I shared the original ANONYMOUS and IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS e-mails (whom I thought was legit until outed by Rick), so I'm REALLY surprised that not only have you been communicating with s/he/them (Tacitus Monroe), but that you won't share those e-mails with the rest of us.

How can we determine who it is if you're holding back those e-mails?
Hope you have a good reason; best thing for you to do is come clean and cough 'em up NOW!

Web site?

Hi Victor,

I hope you realize I am looking at the serpo.info to see how the forensic clues come together. I am not saying I condone any of the tactics at all, but this is how the physical evidence led me to consider Dr. Michael Salla as possibly the driving force or author of serpo.info.

For different reasons, I felt the word "renounce" was a word more likely to be used by an author over the age of 50. Some words age and are less used

The use of the spelling out of E-N-T-E-R-T-A-I-N-M-E-N-T-! from the e-mail snippets below:

> > Dr MICHAEL SALLA's STUDY PAPERS:
> >
> > www.exopolitics.org/Study-Papers.htm
> >

[Unable to display image]

A big clue which tied it together for me, which I did not mention before, was the registration of the owner of the serpo.info website. Each time I looked him up, the search took me to the Australian registrations, then the block would come up because the Australian website's owner paid to keep his registration information private. Since Dr. Salla got his degrees from Australian universities, and probably still lives there, and since his exopolitics had a Feb. 18 article questioning Doty and Serpo, Salla seemed the most likely "force" behind the serpo.info website.

I understand and agree with your comments Victor, about why it may NOT be Michael Salla...but Marilyn's comments are worthy of us to put Michael on the short list for being Tacitus Monroe:

1. Marilyn's analysis is good (although as you point out, not perfect).
2. His long letters and writings, and those of Tacitus are identical in lexical frame...careful attention to scholarly Latin, Greek, and Russian...and a lot more. It is obvious Tacitus can't be you, Rick, or me...but Michael can't be ruled out...and so far...no one has given me anyone else as a candidate...except ValHall and WJ...who both should remain on the short list, although Tacitus says he isn't WJ.
3. In 2002...Dr. Salla wrote a book entitled: "A Hero's Journey"
4. Salla claims EXACTLY the same mission and goals as Tacitus: putting an end to hoaxes about the very serious subject that demonstrates the possibility that there are alien races with whom we have been in contact, and the "dumbing down" of the subject on the internet to the point where only folks with no day jobs, and like to drink coffee all day in their PJs and slippers pay attention.

It is quite interesting to actually read Salla's recent material.

I don't know...actually, I may even put him at or at least near the top of the short list of Tacitus' candidates.

Well now, this is a surprise! Long-time list member Marilyn XXXXXXXXXXXX has named one Dr Michael Salla as the driving force and prime/sole suspect in the

www.serpo.info/

Web site. Read her comments at the VERY bottom, then mine which appear first in the attachment. I never considered this angle, but IF true, I sure am glad I did NOT send out that "hit piece" on WJ ... huge mistake and potentially legal $$$ expenses! Cooler heads prevailed....

Again, thanx for all of your work and attention done on this matter.

One other problem I have with this being Salla is his use of the word "idiot" which comes across as middle-school speak.

Would an erudite person with his level of XXXXXXXXXXXXcation write something like that and use such choppy sentences and be careless about word USAGE [renounce vs repudiate] with a PhD appended to his name?

Victor:

Who has said that Salla is "IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS?" We are talking about Tacitus.

The Second paragraph says nothing about "The Team of Five" or "how we are all in touch"

Did you attach the wrong email from the one you wanted to attached? This one doesn't relate to anything you are saying. Are you also saying you have other information that the attached email from Caspar was one of the ones from WJ? How did you find that out?

I know this and the "SUSPECT Named" e-mail seem as if I'm sending conflicting signals ... I'm NOT: I'm trying to provide as much information so we can narrow down the suspect list. I'm doing my best

One HUGE red flag which STRONGLY suggests WJ and NOT Salla is IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS, is that Salla does NOT know of the "Team of 5" but WJ does and has for a very long time now.

Note the phrase "Richard C Doty is the SOLE source of all SERPO releases" at:

www.serpo.info/ and then note what WJ writes about Rick in the SECOND PARAGRAPH in the attached e-mail and how he knows we're all in touch ... Salla was NEVER privy to this information and I don't maintain any one-on-one contact with him.

Your thoughts, DOC G? -

NO! Nothing suggests that Salla was ever IMPOSTER ANONYMOUS. What I was saying in the attached is that WJ/TheWizardofZin@yahoo.com said that Rick was the only conduit for all of the SERPO information AND the current Web site says that Rick is the "sole source." Think about it: Both Tacitus and WJ pounce on that point.

www.serpo.info/
